ABOUT SOUNDBITES

Hosted by Uniting Voices Chicago's Ambassadors Board, Uniting Voices Chicago SoundBites is a fundraising event on Thursday, April 17 at Venue West that showcases the inspiration, inclusion, celebration and expression of the thousands of Chicago youth lifted up by Uniting Voices Chicago's equitable arts education programs. Attended by Chicago's most influential young professionals, admission includes full event access, open bar, generous hors d'oeuvres, musical performances all night and an opportunity to give back to an organization that changes lives through music.

ABOUT UNITING VOICES CHICAGO

Uniting Voices Chicago (Josephine Lee, President) is a non-profit organization that inspires and unites youth from diverse backgrounds to become global citizens through music. Founded in Hyde Park in direct response to the Civil Rights Movement in 1956, Uniting Voices Chicago has grown from one choir into a vast network of in-school and after-school programs serving thousands of students from every zip code in Chicago.

ABOUT UNITING VOICES CHICAGO'S AMBASSADORS BOARD

The Ambassadors Board of Uniting Voices Chicago is a group of Chicago's brightest young professionals working to raise the philanthropic profile of Uniting Voices Chicago's mission to inspire and change lives through music. The Ambassadors Board allows members to develop their skills to be the next generation of Chicago philanthropists and serve as advocates for cultural diversity and musical excellence.
